

LUNAR NEW YEAR MENU

$52 per person
all parties must participate

FIRST COURSE

YUZU SALAD

seasonal vegetables, yuzu dressing

SECOND COURSE

choice of

RICE CAKE SOUP

rice cakes, beef, broth, green onions, egg

BEEF PANCAKE

beef, green onions, egg

THIRD COURSE

PREMIUM STEAK BOARD

Marinated Ribeye, New York Strip, Prime Short Rib, Chuck Flap

DESSERT

CHOCOLATE MOUSSE CAKE

egg, dark chocolate, flour, butter

INCLUDES:

banchan and rice

CHINESE ZODIAC

YEAR OF THE SNAKE

1929, 1941, 1953, 1965, 1977
1989, 2001, 2013, 2025

The Chinese Zodiac celebrates the Snake as a symbol of wisdom, intuition, and transformation. Those born in the Year of the Snake are often seen as mysterious, talented individuals who think deeply and act with purpose. Their calm exterior often hides a world of insight and creativity.

A YEAR OF TRANSFORMATION

For those under the Snake sign, this year brings opportunities to rewrite your narrative and turn around any misfortune from the past. It's an auspicious time for bold life changes—whether that's purchasing your dream home, expanding your family, launching a new business, or pursuing career growth. Embrace the energy of transformation and take calculated risks to achieve your goals.

LUCKY ELEMENTS

Colors: Black, red, and yellow will attract good fortune and prosperity. Incorporate these into your wardrobe or surroundings to harness their power.

Numbers: Keep an eye out for 2, 8, and 9, as these are believed to bring good luck and align with your energy this year.

As the Snake sheds its skin to emerge anew, let this year symbolize your ability to grow, adapt, and thrive.